Churchwarden: VACANCY

Flowers: Mrs Margaret Lowe
Cleaning: Mr & Mrs Bernie Pratt

22nd July: Our Service of Holy Communion was celebrated by Revd. Judith. This was her last service with us, so it was special and also poignant.

Revd. Judith and her husband Rufus will retire to Norfolk, a very familiar place to them where they can enjoy bird watching which is one of their hobbies. After the service there was a presentation of three large plant pots in a colour that Revd. Judith liked and they will offer plenty of planting space. We had commissioned a beautiful wooden sculpture for Revd. Judith which had been made by Christine Cornell. Photos of our church made into a card was by David Lowe which included signatures in it. Everyone who was at the service signed cards by a Norfolk artist of Norfolk birds reflecting Revd. Judith and Rufus's interest in the subject. Our special refreshments plus a glass of Prosciutto arranged by Miranda gave Revd. Judith a great chance to chat and say her farewells. We wished her and Rufus a happy and healthy retirement. She will be greatly missed by us and by the wider village population for all the wonderful pastoral care that she gave. Thank you to Nancy Roser for playing the organ and to all who made the service special.

28th July: Revd. Judith took her last Baptism service for Felicie Wilcox from Church Road.

29th July: The Five Villages Service was held in St. Mary's Church, Boxford to mark the retirement of Revd. Judith. The church was full -- a testament to the love and appreciation felt. The service included the Lighting of the Candles by a member from each of our parishes plus the parishes of Maplestead and Coggeshall where Revd. Judith had been before as Churchwarden and Curate. The service included hymns, readings and music that were special to Revd. Judith ending with her and Rufus walking out together to the porch to say farewell to everyone as they left the church. A collection at the end of the service was to the charity 'Worldview ' which resulted in over £900.00 After the service, all were invited to the Village Hall for tea and cakes and presentations. We left the Village Hall knowing that now each parish has to pull together during the Vacancy.

Notices: 8th September: RIDE & STRIDE - the Annual Churches Event - 9.00 am to 5.00pm.

Anyone who can offer an hour or half an hour to sit in church to ' clock in ' the walkers or cyclists would be very welcome. Volunteers -- your help will be very much appreciated. Please contact Chris Cornell: 01787 204634. (this is her NEW tel no) or Margaret Lowe: 01787 373538 During the afternoon there will be The Harry Buckledee Challenge Horticultural Show from 2.00pm. ----- 3.00pm. Refreshments available.

23rd September: 11.00 am. Harvest Service followed by Annual Village Harvest Ploughman's Lunch plus a drink and raffle. 12.30 pm for 1.00pm Village Hall.

Special Notice: Saturday. 27th October: 3.00pm. Concert. Millwheel singers. Details will be in the October Newsletter

Dear Newtoners!

Thank you so very much!

Many months ago, I expressed a wish that there would be no retirement gifts, but donations only to my favourite charity, World Vision. However, I was gently told that people wanted to give, as a token of their love and thanks, and I must allow them to. I still struggle with that wish - not for Rufus, who has done over and above what any clergy spouse could be expected to do - but because all I have been doing here over the past years is "my job", if I can call it that. Be that as it may, we have both been utterly overwhelmed, by all that you so generously gave.

Some of you in Newton, I know, will have given to the villages collection in Boxford Post Office, which resulted in us receiving a very large cheque – thank you so much! But before that, there were lovely gifts presented to me at my last church service with you: three beautifully made, large grey-green glazed garden planters and a hand-carved wooden dove made by Christine Cornell, something Christine knew I had always loved after I had seen one she had made at your art exhibition once at the village hall. The planters will blend in perfectly with our garden, in which we have chosen similar colours for the painted back wall and our summer house cum shed and the dove will be in my study, reminding me of you all,

As well receiving wonderful "communal" gifts, we have also been given many very generous donations and presents from individuals. Please accept this as our initial, but sincere, thanks. I will be trying to write to you individually over the coming weeks. I do have one puzzle though: if you gave me the vegan cookbook "Planted", please let me know as I can't work out who did!

Of course, it wasn't just the personal gifts, cards and letters though. So many people helped to make my final service and the celebration tea afterwards truly memorable occasions. Over 250 people attended the service and many of these squeezed into the village hall afterwards! So our heartfelt thanks to all those in Newton who contributed toward a seemingly endless supply of delicious cakes, scones and other culinary delights, without which the whole event would not have happened. Special thanks to two Newtoners and others who made vegan ones for Rufus and myself, which was so appreciated. Thanks also to Margaret Lowe for reading at the service so beautifully.

My last thank you has to be to everyone - which included people from the five churches and villages as well as friends from Coggeshall, Great Maplestead and the Cathedral, who contributed to the church retiring collection. The grand total of £866.25 has now been sent to World Vision towards its vital, life-saving and life-changing work with children and adults across the world in need of food, water, shelter, medicines and education. Thank you all again, for your huge generosity and for such a wonderful send-off.

I always loved coming to your monthly village hall coffee mornings and fetes when I have been able to and am already missing everyone very much! For those of you who would like to keep in touch and have asked for my new contact details, here they are: Address: 15 The Dial, Reepham, NORWICH. NR10 4LX; Tel: 07484 862962; email: judith.sweetman@btinternet.com I look forward to hearing from you, but for now, Rufus and I bid you "farewell", thank you from our hearts once again, and wish you health, happiness and peace for the future. A final PS: Do please keep attending and supporting your village church's services and events – you will always receive a warm and friendly welcome!

Blessings to you all, Revd Judith

To the Children and Parents of Newton Green,

We can then document your findings in our neighbourhood plan to show the important part that wildlife and flora play in everyday village life.

Paper and colouring pencils will be provided, but if you wish to take photos please bring your own camera.

Light refreshments will be available and please wear suitable walking shoes/outdoor clothing. Children must be accompanied by a parent/guardian.

NEWTON NEIGHBOURHOOD PLAN

The committee have asked if I would write a brief history of Newton as part of the Neighbourhood Plan, with particular reference to the historic buildings in the village, and to any detrimental effect future development might have on them.

The information I have on Newton's listed buildings is limited to the very basic information that was recorded at the time of listing. It would be more satisfactory to have a fuller picture of these important buildings, and many current owners may have researched their history. If you have this information and are prepared to share it for the benefit of the village could you kindly e-mail it to me at alanvince@sky.com, or drop it in to me at Barn Cottage, Church Road.

Many Thanks,

Alan Vince

IT'S ALL SO LONG AGO

Compiled by Alan Vince – Village Historian

THE SARACEN'S HEAD

An article written by Rev A.G. Ensor about 1961

Thomas son of Alexander Radford was baptised in Newton Church in 1577. Alexander died in 1608 aged 80 and a mortuary was paid on his goods so he must have been of substantial standing in the village.

By his Will he left a rent charge on the Saracen's Head for the repair of the church. In the Will, the Head is described as 'a messuage and seven acres of land.' The house itself was smaller than at present but had plenty of out buildings. In one of these perhaps was born the child who was baptised on 1st April 1623 and was described as the illegitimate child of a vagrant woman and a soldier Richard Tyrell.

As the house was called The Saracen's Head in 1608 it had probably been so called for a very long time. One would like to find a connection between Robert de Bures of the Manor of Acton. Perhaps he gave the name to the hostelry on his return from the Crusades, but we have no proof of this.

A rent charge on the Saracen's Head was paid to the church until the middle of the 18th Century. This amounted to 4 Nobles (£1-6-8d). In the 18th Century the payment appears to have been commuted after some kind of dispute which is recorded in the back of the church register.

The Innkeeper in 1674 was Richard Hussey; he paid hearth tax on 5 hearths which would probably include those in the out buildings for brewing, baking, etc. He also subscribed 6d towards the relief of the French Protestants in Sudbury in 1686. These were Huguenot refugees many of whom left France after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. The village of Newton collected over £2 for their assistance. This is the first house to house collection in our records.

The Saracen's Head was always important. The Court Leat met there until 1721 to elect the Constable, ale testers, and pound keepers. The blacksmith was often Constable and pound keeper. The pound was the little walled garden near the Saracen's Head, now partly demolished. The pound often stood on common land near a water supply. In it stray animals were impounded or even flocks and herds kept for the night while the drovers lodged at the Head. There may have been a village lock up for drunks, but there is no trace of one.

The stone at the corner of the house may have been the 3-mile stone out of Sudbury, but more likely just a stone used for mounting horses.

The Saracen's Head was built up to the limit of its freehold. The original building may have had a gable end facing the road. Its windows are now inside.

The Saracen's Head was a free house until the retirement of Miss F.Glass, the last of a long line of the Glass family who had kept the Head in Newton for over 100 years. The Head was first owned by the Tollemache Brewery Co and later by Cobbolds, after it ceased to be a free house in the 1950's. Considerable alterations were made. The old sanitation was removed to make the car park.

There used to be a large old poplar tree in front of the Saracen's Head; it fell rather suddenly, and the house trembled.

A.G.Ensor (c 1961)

FIRESIDE CLUB

July 17th Members came with photographs of ourselves as babies and we had to guess the owners. This proved very difficult, but very interesting as we learnt where members were born and a little of their history. Alan produced another of his brainteasing quizzes, we all cheat like mad so it's difficult to say who won.

July 26th We were all set to visit Bawdsey Radar Museum but it was so unbearably hot that week I made the decision to postpone the outing, members were very relieved.

July 31st Members brought along crafts they had made past and present. Some lovely and interesting items were admired, it's amazing what talent there was amongst us.

August 3rd We had an afternoon visit to Braintree Silk Archives. We had a short talk and tea and went around the exhibition. We were able to pull out drawers and admire silk designs with the history about them, a modern exhibition and very interesting collection of photographs and exhibits. They have an amazing number of workshops held there on such subjects as Zip broaches, paper cutting, cotton key tassels, cord spinning and decoupage shoes to name a few.

August 14th A meeting day we all met in the car park and drove to Corn Craft for tea and cake, very popular about 22 had tea and plenty of cake.

Future dates are.

August 28th A beetle drive !! and discuss the arrangements for our 60th Anniversary.

August 31st An all-day outing to Felixstowe with lunch leaving the Village hall Car Park at 9.30. Lunch will be booked in Felixstowe. The mini bus for this outing is now full.

September 11th The Fireside Club is celebrating its 60th Anniversary as it was formed in 1958. We are having a buffet lunch, a big raffle, a cake and suitable music of the era. Lawshall Tuesday club has been invited to join us in our celebrations and are looking forward to celebrating with us.

September 25th We will be amusing ourselves with indoor games.

September 27th The long-awaited outing to Bawdsey Radar Museum and lunch at the Ramsholt Arms .9.30 VHCP

Christmas Lunch !!! has been booked at the Cock and Bell in Long Melford for a Christmas Buffet 1.00 for 1.30 pm.

I expect you are all as relieved as I am that the weather is now behaving as expected and we can now get back into routine again. The only disadvantage is now the grass needs cutting.
